Monthly Reports and Correspondence: Cebula contacted Joseph Tucker the County Forest Administrator from Marathon County about the damage on Leather Camp Drive west of Yellow Birch Road. Because the county uses this road for access to the County Foret for logging purposes with their heavy equipment theyhave done substantial dame to the road. An agreement was reached with Mr. Tucker that the county would pay for half of the Cisler gravel, approximately 21 loads to improve areas of the road. John Zogata, owner of Rock Trucking will haul in the loads and grade the road. The town will then bill the county for their half. The total project would cost approximately $6500. The county has grants available for this type of aid to municipalities. Mr. Tucker will keep Cebula informed.
